If there be no advance, the horse shall go to the person from whom the auctioneer recognized as the last bid. Title and Risk of Loss: Title to and risk of loss pass from Consignor to Buyer immediately after the horse is struck down by the auctioneer. This shall especially be the condition in the case of illness, injury, or death of any horse after it has been sold. The Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold the Consignor, Western Heritage Sales Co., Oklahoma Horse Fair, harmless from all loss, cost and expense arising from the illness, injury or death of a horse or loss or damage to property and injury or death of persons caused by the Buyer, the Buyers agents or employees or by the horse after the horse has been purchased.

Removal of Horses: All horses must be removed from the auction sale grounds by no later than 12 p.m. on the day following the sale. Failure to remove the horse for any reason will obligate the Buyer to pay all costs associated with board and transportation of the horse.

Caution: Everyone attending this sale agrees to save and hold harmless and indemnify Western Heritage Sales Co., Oklahoma Horse Fair, its agents, employees, and agents thereof, from any and all responsibilities, liabilities, obligations, claims or legal proceedings arising from any accident that may occur to horses, equipment, or for loss by fire, theft, or injury or death to any human or animal in any way or manner.

Also ridden all over the Ozark Mountains as a trail horse. We've used him at our Kids Cowboy Camps, on group trail rides, and on the ranch to gather and sort cattle. Easy keeper. We got Shadow from a racehorse farm. Our daughter conditioned him for an endurance race last June-August. Unfortunately 1 week before the race, he had an abscess that prevented her from using him. We have gotten him patterned on barrels. Has plenty of gas. He is a little head strong but does fine with a confident rider. He will make a great barrel horse for someone that can further his training. He is also a great mover and could go towards the English Discipline in Hunter Under Saddle, Hunter Jumper or English Equitation. Really the sky's the limit with this gorgeous smart horse.
